Bigfoot Curious About Science and Loves Sweets?

PORTLAND, OREGON – Oregon Fish and Wildside Investigator and Park Ranger Jon Gandy (aka Boo Boo) tracked Sasquatch over to the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI) last night where NAE4-HA attendees had snapped photos of the hairy creature enjoying a ride on the escalator. Numerous attendees attempted to lure Sasquatch with Jack Links Jerky but were unfortunately (or perhaps fortunately) not successful.

The disappearance of over 300 assorted cupcakes and cookies from the OMSI event may also be the work of Sasquatch. Anyone noticing frosting footprints is asked to report to Ranger Gandy immediately.
